WIC is a federally funded Nutrition Program that improves access to healthy food options for mothers, children and families. Our goal is to help prevent childhood hunger and to help you and your family off to a good start in life.

Am I eligible?

- Live in North Carolina?
- Have a nutritional need?
- *Meet income guidelines?

*Family income of less than 185% of the US poverty income guidelines. A person receiving Medicaid, Work First Families Assistance (AFDC), or Food Stamps will automatically qualify to receive WIC assistance.

Additional WIC help?

- Free breast pump rental & supplies
- Healthcare referrals

Examples: substance abuse, postpartum depression counseling and treatment.

In North Carolina, the WIC program serves more than 270,000 women, infants and children each month.
